

ALGOMA FLORA

Marsh Marigold

This succulent plant is native to Ontario and can be found in marshy areas, stream banks and wet woods. It has shiny yellow flowers and kidney shaped leaves. Blooms appear in April and May and the leaves are sometimes cooked needing to be boiled many times as they are not safe to eat raw.

Art Gallery of ALGOMA